Working Rules of the Human Resources and Remuneration Committee under the Board of Directors

CHAPTER 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1

For the purpose of facilitating the fulfillment of duties of the board of directors (hereinafter referred to as the “Board”) and enhancing the work efficiency, Anhui Expressway Company Limited (hereinafter referred to as “Anhui Expressway” or the “Company”) has set up the Human Resources and Remuneration Committee (hereinafter referred to as the “Human Resources Committee”) of the Board in accordance with the Company Law of the People’s Republic of China, the Securities Law of the People’s Republic of China, the Administrative Measures for Independent Directors of Listed Companies* (《上市公司獨立董事管理辦法》), the Code for Corporate Governance of Listed Companies* (《上市公司治理準則》), the Basic Standards for Corporate Internal Control* (《企業內部控制基本規範》), the Rules Governing the Listing of Stocks on the Shanghai Stock Exchange* (《上海證券交易所股票上市規則》), the Shanghai Stock Exchange Self-Regulatory Supervision Guidelines for Listed Companies No. 1 – Standardised Operation* (《上海證券交易所上市公司自律監管指引第1號—規範運作》), the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and other relevant laws, administrative rules, regulatory and normative documents, as well as the relevant provisions of the Articles of Association of Anhui Expressway Company Limited (hereinafter referred to as the “Articles of Association”), and formulated these Rules.

Article 2

The Human Resources Committee is a special committee established under the Board. It is responsible for forming the human resources development strategies and plans, researching and forming the remuneration strategies and incentive schemes, and evaluating the performance of directors, the general manager and other senior management and advising on their appointment and removal.

Article 3 The purpose of these Rules is to clearly define the powers and duties of the Human Resources Committee, which are important guidelines and reference for the Human Resources Committee to perform its duties. The Human Resources Committee is held accountable and reports to the Board, and the proposals of the Human Resources Committee shall be considered and decided upon by the Board.

Article 4 The Company shall provide necessary working conditions for the Human Resources Committee. When the Human Resources Committee performs its duties, the management and relevant departments of the Company shall actively provide cooperation. Where necessary, the Human Resources Committee may seek independent professional advice at the Company's expenses.

CHAPTER 2 COMPOSITION

Article 5 The Human Resources Committee shall consist of three to five members, all of whom shall be directors and the majority of whom shall be independent directors. The Human Resources Committee shall have one chairman, and the chairman shall be acted by an independent director.

Article 6 The chairman and members of the Human Resources Committee shall be appointed by the Board in the form of letters of appointment issued by the Board. Members so appointed shall lodge the written notice of acceptance of such appointments to the Board for record within 7 days.

Article 7 The Human Resources Committee shall have one secretary, who shall be acted by the head of the Company's human resources department, to assist in the co-ordination and communication between the Human Resources Committee and the Board and other committees and departments.

Article 8 The term of office of the Human Resources Committee shall be the same as that of the Board, and the members are subject to re-election and re-appointment upon the expiry of their terms of office. If any member ceases to act as a director of the Company during such period, that member shall automatically be disqualified as a member of the Human Resources Committee.

Article 9 When a member of the Human Resources Committee resigns from the Board prior to the expiry of the member's term of office, the member shall tender a written resignation in which the member shall provide necessary explanations on the reasons for the member's resignation as well as the matters that should be brought to the attention of the Board.

Where the number of members of the Human Resources Committee falls below the requirement due to the resignation of its member(s), the Board shall elect new member(s) as soon as practicable; the remaining member(s) shall continue to perform his/her/their duties as member(s) of the Human Resources Committee in accordance with the provisions of these Rules until the new member(s) assume(s) office.

2. to identify individuals suitably qualified to become Board members and select or make recommendations to the Board on the selection of individuals nominated for directorships;
3. to assess the independence of independent non-executive directors;
4. to make recommendations to the Board on the appointment or reappointment of directors and succession planning for directors, in particular the chairman and the chief executive;
5. to assist the Supervisory Committee in assessing the performance of directors during their terms of office, and to propose their removal based on the attendance rate and performance of directors in Board meetings and committee meetings;
6. to assess the performance of general manager and other senior management annually, and to propose their dismissal based on the same;
7. to make reference to the Policy on Diversification of Members of the Board (Annex I), taking into account objectively the benefits of diversification of members of the Board;
8. to review the Policy on Diversification of Members of the Board when appropriate, and review the measurable objectives and the progress in attaining the objectives under the Policy on Diversification of Members of the Board to ensure its effectiveness; and make disclosure of its review results in the Corporate Governance Report of the Company annually.

(IV) Other functions and powers

1. to review pension plans, annuity plans and other employee benefit plans;
2. to report back to the Board on the Human Resources Committee's decisions or recommendations, unless there are legal or regulatory restrictions on doing so (such as a restriction on disclosure due to the regulatory requirement);
3. to conduct other works as required by the Board.

Article 13 The Human Resources Committee shall, in line with the different authorizations granted by the Board, prepare and submit reports on the remuneration packages proposed by the Human Resources Committee and the assessment on directors and senior management for approval by the Board and/or the general meeting.

CHAPTER 4 MEETING AND DECISION-MAKING PROCEDURES

Article 14 The Committee shall meet at least once a year, the timing of which shall depend on needs. The meetings shall be convened and chaired by the chairman of the Committee. Notice of meetings shall be given to all Committee members not less than five days before the date of meetings.

Article 15 The secretary of the Human Resources Committee shall be responsible for the preparation of the agenda and information required for the meetings. The materials for meetings shall be distributed to the Committee members three days before the meetings.

The secretary of the Committee shall prepare minutes of the meetings and circulate the same to all members of each of the Committee and the Board within a reasonable time for review. The minutes of the meetings shall clearly record the opinions of the independent directors and be signed by the independent directors for confirmation. The minutes of the meetings shall be archived and kept in accordance with the relevant provisions on the Company's archives management.

Article 16 In principle, the meetings of the Human Resources Committee shall be held on-site, however, under the premise of ensuring full communication among and expression of opinions by all the members of the Committee, the meetings may be held by way of video, telephone or other means in accordance with the procedures if necessary.

- Article 17 The independent directors shall attend the meetings of the special committee in person. Where an independent director is unable to attend a meeting in person due to certain reasons, he/she shall review the materials for the meeting in advance, form clear opinions, and appoint another independent director in writing to attend the meeting on his/her behalf.
- Article 18 Each member of the Human Resources Committee shall have one vote, either by show of hands or by poll; decisions taken at the meetings shall be approved by a majority of all members.
- Article 19 Based on the need, the Human Resources Committee may invite other directors, external professionals, consulting organizations or senior management of the Company to attend the meetings.
- Article 20 The Human Resources Committee shall submit a written report on the issues discussed for the Board's review.
- Article 21 The Human Resources Committee may, through the secretary of the Committee or the Board Secretariat or the Human Resources Department of the Company, monitor and implement specific programs.

CHAPTER 5 SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

- Article 22 The Board reserves the right to interpret these Rules, which shall come into force on the date of its issuance, and the former "Terms of Reference for the Human Resources and Remuneration Committee under the Board of Directors of Anhui Expressway Company Limited" shall be repealed at the same time.
